KONO Ambassador Team:

The Ambassadors have embraced a noble calling as stewards of our environment and communities, taking a proactive stance against illegal dumping. With determination and dedication, we join hands to meticulously clean and restore our districts, ensuring that the blight of illegal dumps is eradicated from our neighborhoods. Armed with pressure washers and unwavering enthusiasm, we embark on a mission to breathe new life into the surfaces that define our cityscapes. As the water jets dance across block faces, we witness the miraculous transformation that unfolds, revealing the hidden beauty that lies beneath layers of grime and neglect. Through these acts of beautification, we not only revitalize our physical surroundings but also inspire a sense of pride and ownership among our fellow residents, fostering a community that thrives on the principles of care and collaboration.
