General Comments:

The KONO Ambassador Team sends the warmest welcome to all during these cold Winter months! The month of November brought on some very chilly weather, rainstorms, and strong winds. With the KONO Ambassadors hard at work in all types of weather, the district continues to be a very welcoming and safe place for all to live and visit.

KONO Ambassador Team:

As you can see from the attached pictures, KONO Ambassador staff have dedicated so much labor to help beautify the district. With Winter in full swing, cleaning the leaves from all the beautiful trees throughout the district has been a challenging process, but one we are handling with care. The Ambassadors are doing an amazing job with the removal of the leaves, which help prevent slip and fall accidents while making the area look crisp. Additionally, removing leaves from the storm gutters prevent flooding from wet weather events.

Notable Moment:

The KONO Ambassadors continue to be 'heroes in a blue shirt', with Ambassadors passing out clothes and shoes to the local unhoused population. They will be working close with MACRO (Mobile Assistance Community Responders of Oakland) on permanent solutions for some of the unhoused people in the district and helping get them transportation to detox facilities. Also new to KONO is the mobile security guard working in the district from 12:00pm to 10:00pm, helping further deter criminal activity during the holiday season. There's also a lot more police patrol on foot along with motorcycle patrols to help improve public safety, to ensure the safety for all during the holiday season.
